Why I'm Leading This Journey:

I recently returned from Jordan, where I wandered through Petra's glowing Siq, stood before the iconic Treasury, and experienced the magic of Petra by Night under a sky full of lanterns. I spent quiet evenings stargazing in the vast desert of Wadi Rum and floated effortlessly in the healing waters of the Dead Sea. The journey was powerful, grounding, and filled with the warmest hospitality. I left deeply inspired—and knew I had to bring our Pride Adventures community back to experience this unforgettable place together.
